

ABF/HABF Evaluation

Evaluation is essential for growth as individuals and as groups. We want our community groups to be places where we learn and grow, serve others, make friendships, and belong. Thanks for taking a few minutes to anonymously complete this survey. Your feedback is essential to making your ABF an even better place. To God be the glory!

On a scale of 1- 10 (1=Poor; 10=Excellent), rate the following areas:

Teacher/Teaching

Teaching style (creative teaching methods, interactive/participatory, strong application/relevance to life)

Teacher's heart for the class

Topics (relevant, balanced between Old & New Testament, theology, topical & book studies)

Teacher's overall communication skills and effectiveness

Teaching is accurate and faithful to the Bible's meaning

Teacher is engaging and keeps the attention of class attendees

Teacher is a fellow learner

COMMENTS:

Leader/Leadership

Organized (well prepared, etc.)

Heart for the class, caring, sensitive to people

Oversees and develops leadership team

Has a clear vision for the group

Delegates well so that other group members participate in the ministry

Is willing to lead making changes as needed

Deals with conflict in a biblical fashion

Motivates others

Leads by example

COMMENTS:

Socials

Frequency (Are you comfortable with the number of socials per year?)

Variety (different types of socials)

Quality of socials (well-planned, of interest to majority of group, etc.)

COMMENTS:

Care

A good system of meeting needs within the class

Sharing & Prayer (plenty of people share, different formats for prayer time, people feel comfortable to share prayer requests & praises, etc.)

COMMENTS:

Hospitality/Welcoming Visitors

Feel at home and welcome (greeting visitors, phone calls, introductions, letter mailed)

When visitors come they feel welcomed and accepted

COMMENTS:

Outward Focus (Service)

ABF attendees serve in effective ways outside of ABF, but inside The Chapel.

ABF/HABF has a service ministry outside of the walls of The Chapel with which they regularly serve (once a quarter)

COMMENTS:

What are the strengths of the class?

What are the weaknesses of the class?

If you could make one suggestion to improve your class, what would it be?
