- Set 1:
 - Who is one person it's hard for you to resist condemning, and what do they do that makes it so hard?
 - If you were in their shoes, and you did what they do, what might some of your reasons be for doing those things?
 - How would it change your relationship with them if you were gracious in your judgment of them, rather than condemning?

SESSION #4

LUKE 6:37-42

STUDENT GUIDE

○ Set 2

- Is there a sin in your life that you treat like it's no big deal? (You might say things like "It just happens. Everyone deals with it sometimes.")
- If someone you love (a spouse or best friend) consistently dealt with the same sin, would you think it's a big deal?
- How would dealing with that particular sin make you better able to help others, like Jesus says in verse 42?
